DURATION

DAY 01 NARKANDA

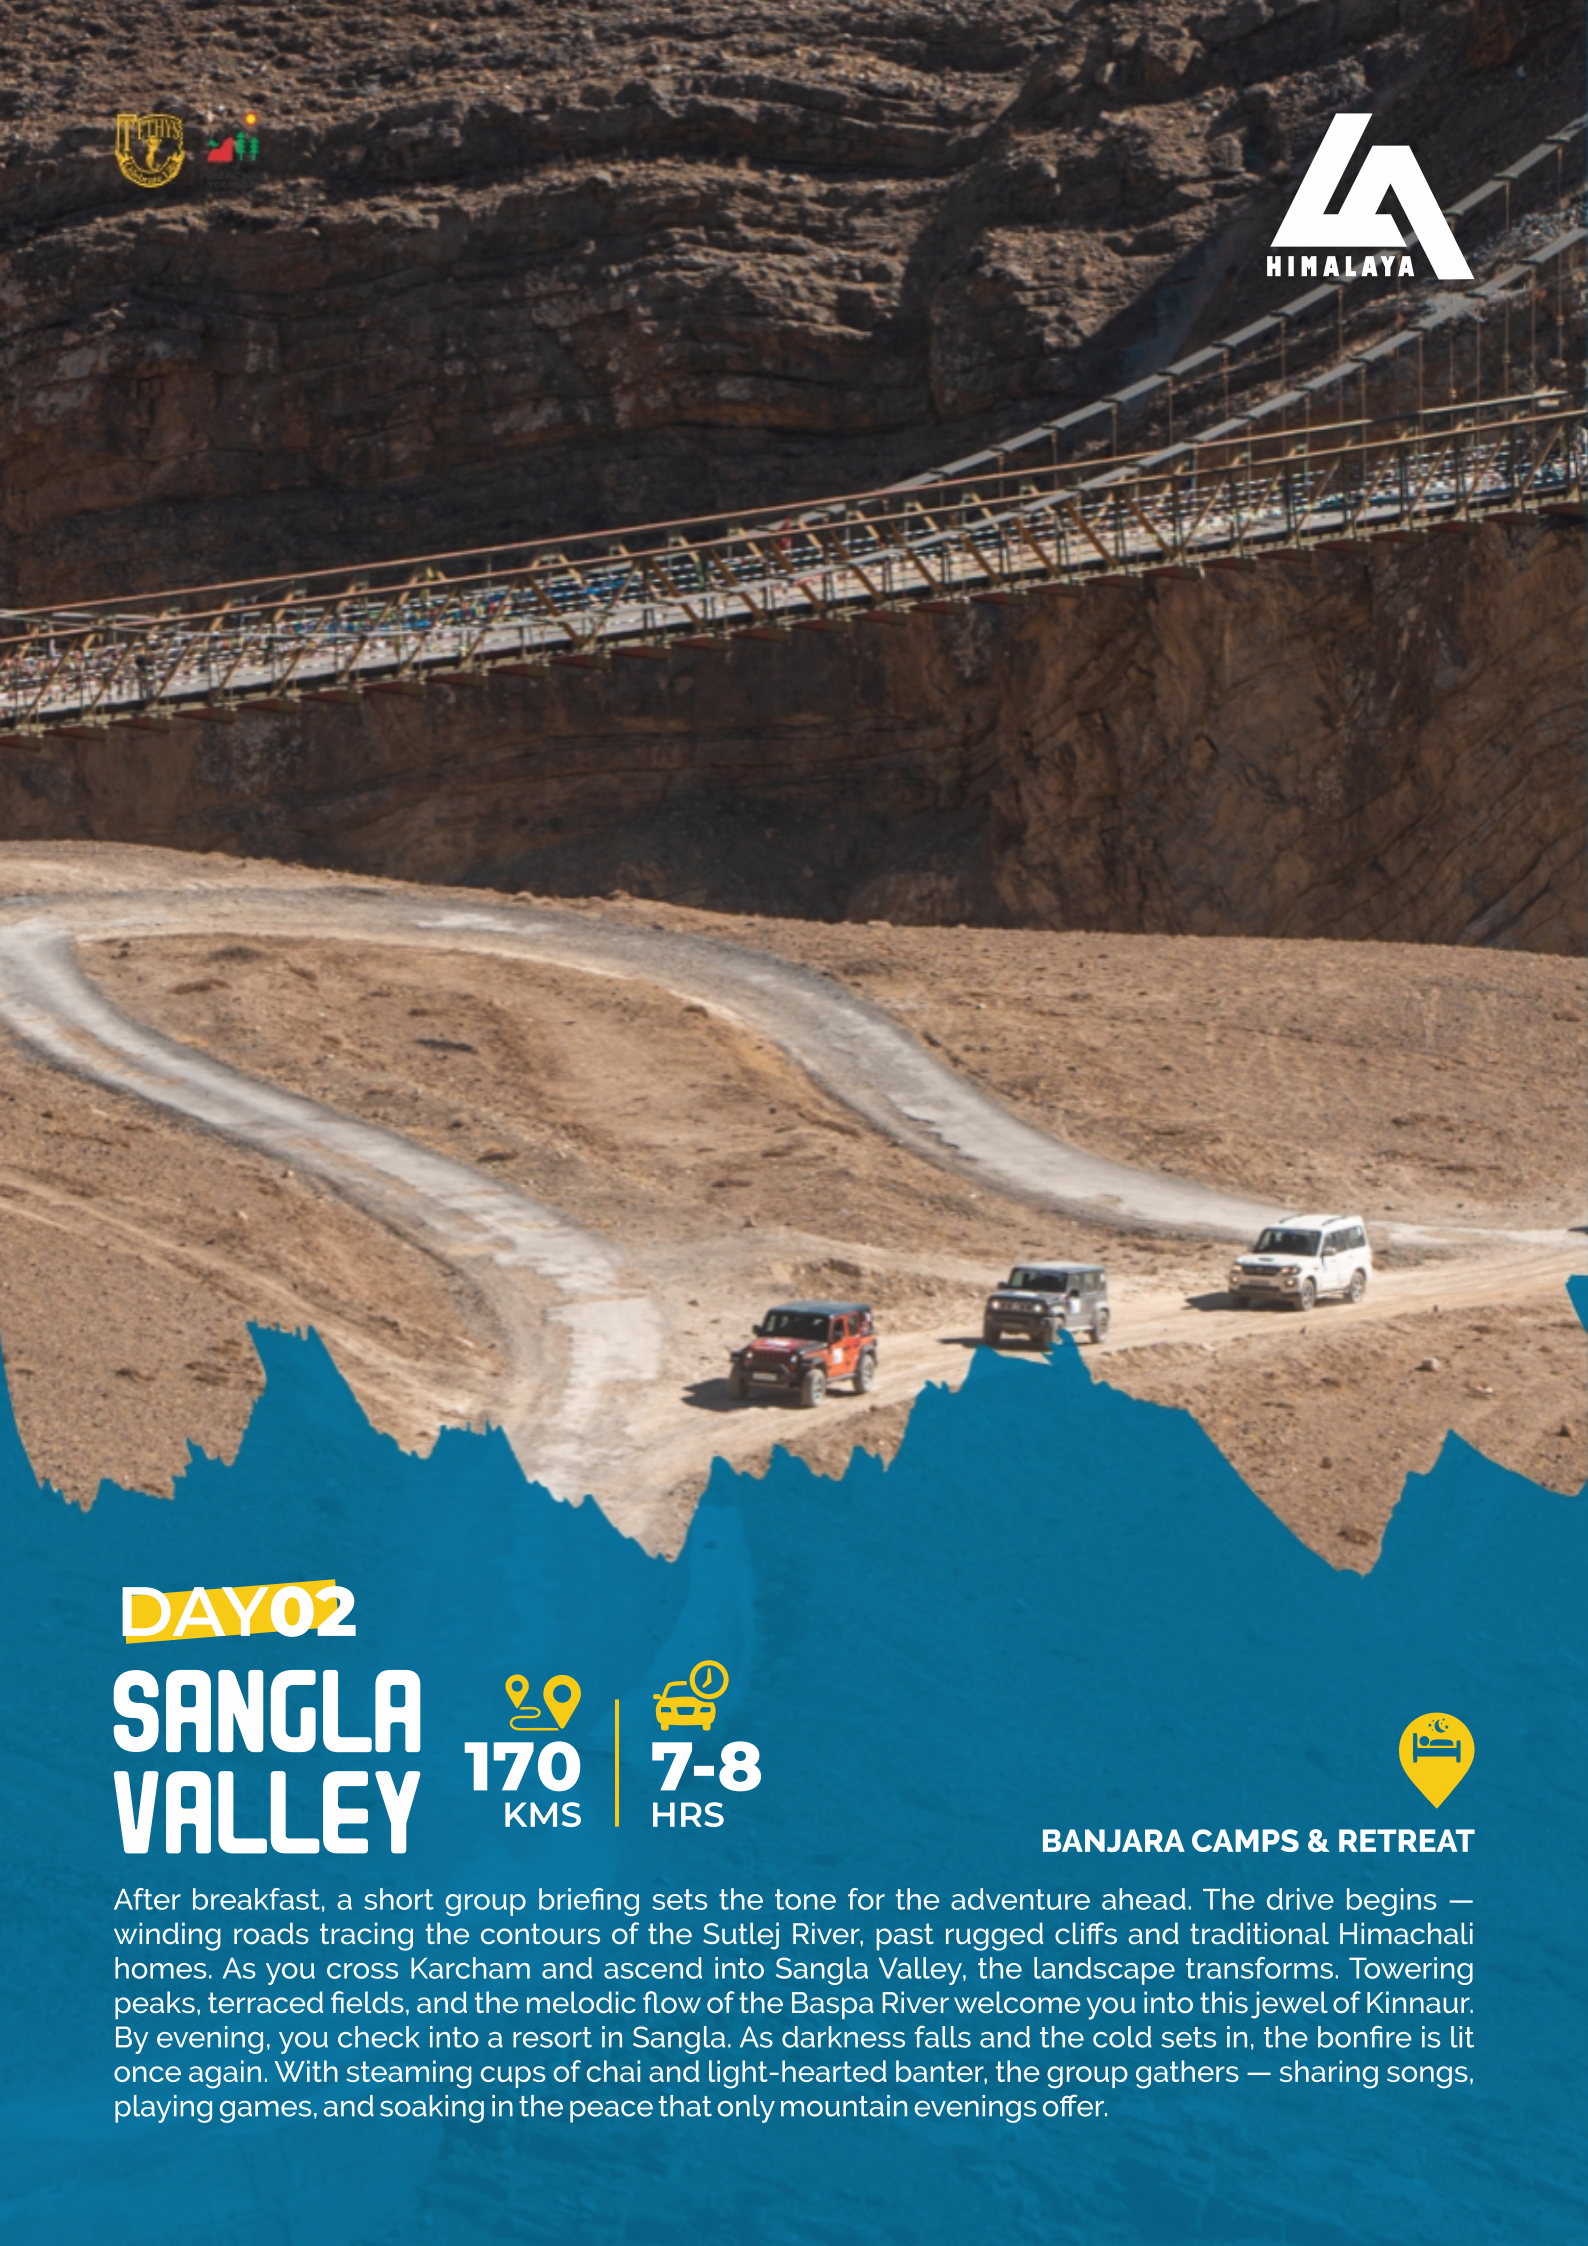

170
KMS
FROM CHANDIGARH

5-6
HRS

TETHYS SKI RESORT
(OR EQUIVALENT)

As the sun dips below the pine-clad ridges of Narkanda, you arrive at the cozy and scenic Tethys Ski Resort by 6:00 PM. Surrounded by tall deodars and crisp mountain air, the resort offers panoramic views of the Himalayas stretching into the distance. After a warm welcome and check-in, the evening unfolds gently with a comforting bonfire in the lounge. The group gathers over tea and snacks — sharing introductions, travel stories, and laughter. Some hum a tune, others sway to the rhythm — the perfect start to a beautiful journey through Himachal's hidden wonders.

DAY02

SANGLA VALLEY

170
KMS

7-8
HRS

BANJARA CAMPS & RETREAT

After breakfast, a short group briefing sets the tone for the adventure ahead. The drive begins — winding roads tracing the contours of the Sutlej River, past rugged cliffs and traditional Himachali homes. As you cross Karcham and ascend into Sangla Valley, the landscape transforms. Towering peaks, terraced fields, and the melodic flow of the Baspa River welcome you into this jewel of Kinnaur. By evening, you check into a resort in Sangla. As darkness falls and the cold sets in, the bonfire is lit once again. With steaming cups of chai and light-hearted banter, the group gathers — sharing songs, playing games, and soaking in the peace that only mountain evenings offer.

DAY 03

CHITKUL

LUNCH BY THE RIVER
BACK TO SANGLA

40
KMS

3-4
HRS

BANJARA CAMPS & RETREAT

Today, you travel deeper into the valley to Chitkul, the last village on the Indo-Tibetan border. The road meanders past pine forests and snow-laden peaks, opening up to breathtaking views of the Kinnaur Kailash range. In Chitkul, time slows down. Traditional wooden homes, prayer flags, and the icy waters of the Baspa create a picture-perfect scene. You enjoy a riverside lunch, surrounded by towering cliffs and the soft whisper of the wind. After a leisurely afternoon, the return to Sangla offers more photo ops and scenic detours. Back at the stay, the evening once again turns magical - Pre heated Bukhari, laughter echoing through the valley, spontaneous dance moves, and songs that carry through the cold mountain air.

DAY04

TABO

VIA NAKO LAKE &
GUE MONASTERY

196
KMS

8-9
HRS

SPITI MUD HUTS
OR ALIKE

An early start sets the stage for a day of dramatic transitions. Leaving the green valley of Sangla, you drive into the stark, surreal beauty of Spiti. First stop: the tranquil, frozen waters of Nako Lake, surrounded by ancient mud houses and wind-carved prayer stones. Further ahead lies the hauntingly beautiful Gue Monastery, home to a 500-year-old mummified monk — a spiritual relic suspended in time. As you descend into Tabo, the landscape becomes more lunar than earthly. Tabo, known for its over 1,000-year-old monastery and mud-walled structures, is a town steeped in ancient wisdom. In the evening, warm bukhari fires and candle-lit conversations light up the night. The group gathers to unwind — sharing the wonder of the day, humming old songs, and sipping on herbal tea or local brew as snowflakes drift silently outside.

DAY05

KAZA

VIA DHANKAR
& PIN VALLEY

130
KMS

7-8
HRS

SAKYA ABODE
OR ALIKE

The morning begins with a visit to Tabo Monastery, a UNESCO heritage site filled with ancient murals and meditation caves. From there, the road leads to the cliffside Dhankar Monastery, once the royal seat of the Spitian kings. Perched precariously over a confluence of rivers, it offers soul-stirring views. Next, the journey winds into the hidden Pin Valley, a place where time stops — vibrant gompas, endangered Himalayan wildlife, and remote villages tucked into the folds of untouched nature. By evening, you arrive in Kaza, the heart of Spiti. Here, another cozy night awaits — a roaring bonfire or glowing bukhari, delicious food, and the now-familiar warmth of shared songs and stories that wrap around you like a blanket.

DAY06

KOMIK

VIA LANGZA, HIKKIM
& BACK TO KAZA

40
KMS

4-5
HRS

SAKYA ABODE
OR ALIKE

Today is all about exploring some of the highest inhabited villages in the world. First, you visit Langza, where fossils of ancient marine life tell tales of a time when these peaks were underwater. Next is Hikkim, where you can send postcards from the world's highest post office - a unique memento of your journey. At Komik, one of Asia's highest motorable villages, you find peace at an age-old monastery surrounded by snowy silence. Returning to Kaza in the evening, the air buzzes with joy and connection. The night comes alive with a local Spitian dinner, soft music, spontaneous singing, and even a little dancing - laughter warming the room as much as the bukhari does.

DAY 07 LOSAR

VIA CHICHAM, KEY MONASTERY
& BACK TO KAZA

60
KMS

5-6
HRS

SAKYA ABODE
OR ALIKE

This day is for the soul. You begin with a drive to Chicham Bridge, the highest suspension bridge in Asia, spanning a jaw-dropping gorge. Then you visit the magnificent Key Monastery, perched atop a hill like a watchful guardian of Spiti. Here, time seems to flow slower — monks chant, prayer wheels spin, and the monastery's ancient energy invites quiet introspection. Later, you continue to Losar, a windswept village near Kunzum Pass, known for its stark beauty and Buddhist serenity. The return to Kaza is filled with conversations about the spirituality and grandeur of the day. Your final evening in Spiti becomes a celebration — of life, friendship, and the mountains — with singing, dancing, shared memories, and starry skies above.

DAY08

FAGU

400
KMS

11-12
HRS

4 STAR HOTEL

The time has come to say goodbye to Spiti's rugged charm. Today's long drive retraces your steps down to the greener pastures of lower Himachal. You descend past Nako, Rampur, and pine-draped hills until you arrive at Fagu, a quiet, misty hamlet near Shimla, known for its cedar forests and apple orchards. Here, the air feels warmer, the roads smoother, but the mountains still call gently. As evening falls, your last bonfire crackles to life. It's a moment for gratitude - for the bonds built, the songs sung, the silent moments shared under Himalayan skies. With a final round of laughter, music, and reflection, the group toasts to an unforgettable journey.

DAY09 DEPARTURE

After breakfast, you prepare to leave Fagu and return to your onward destinations. The journey may be over, but the mountains have a way of staying with you — in the quiet strength they inspire, the friendships they nurture, and the memories etched in snow, stone, and soul. With hearts full and spirits lifted, you begin the return, already dreaming of the next adventure.
